Local News.

Cotton 11 cents.

Messrs. C. S. Brice and W. L. Reid, of Avon, are in town today.

Dr. H. E. McConnell is riding in a brand new automobile. Mr. J. C. Stewart has bought Mr. J. C. Carpenter's machine.

Dr. J. F. Atkinson, of Lewisville, is in town today. He never comes unless he has business and never stays much longer than is necessary, but is always interesting.

Miss Bleka, Lindsay, of Yorkville, spent last night with Mrs. A. M. Aiken, on her return from a visit in Clinton, and left this morning for her home, via Rock Hill.

Mr. R. F. Towson returned this morning from Smithburg, Md., where he was called Saturday on account of the illness of his father, who died before he reached his bedside.

Mrs. A. M. Sapp, of Lexington, N. C., is in the city today on her way to the neighborhood of Great Falls to visit relatives. Before her marriage she was Miss Lily Varnadore, a daughter of Mr. R. W. Varnadore, and was raised in that community.

Dr. J. M. Brice went to Woodward yesterday afternoon to see the little child of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brice, who is ill with bronchial pneumonia. Mr. Paul Hardin took him in his new automobile. They left here about 3 o'clock and were back a little after 5 o'clock and were at Mr. Brice's about an hour. Dr. T. S. Lettner accompanied them.

Mrs. Amanda Bigham went to Charlotte the first of last week to see her little grand child, the little son of Mr. L. D. Wishart, who was very ill, and brought it to this city Thursday where it is being tenderly nursed at the home of Mr. Newton Brown, near the C. & N. W. railroad shops. It seems a little better this morning, but there is very little hope for its recovery.

Mrs. Margaret Peden Dead.

Mrs. Margaret Peden, died early Wednesday morning, March 20, 1907, at the home of her son, Sheriff Thomas Peden, on Centre street. She was 86 years old the 27th of February. Until about three months ago she was remarkably active for one of her years but since then has been confined to her room, and for about two weeks, to her bed, from a general break down and a complication of troubles incident to old age. Mrs. Hood was born near Hanging Rock, in Kernaw county, but when she was a child her father, Mr. Andrew Hood, moved to this county and settled in the Rocky Creek section, near Pleasant Grove Presbyterian church.

She was a sister of the late Messrs. John and Israel Hood, and is the last member of that family. Her husband, the late Mr. D. M. Peden, died several years ago, but she continued to live at their home near Peden's bridge until the last of December, 1905, she was growing so feeble, she with her son, Mr. Andrew Peden, moved to this city, and have since made their home with Mr. Thomas Peden. She was a good woman and was for years a member of Catholic Presbyterian church. The funeral services were at the home yesterday morning at 9 o'clock conducted by Rev. J. S. Carrledge, and the burial in the cemetery at Catholic church. She is survived by her two sons, Messrs. Thomas and Andrew Peden, both of this city.

Richard Carroll.

Richard Carroll had a splendid audience last night and his speech was worthy of the occasion. He was entirely candid with both white and black and his advice was good. If it were followed there would be no race problem, and conditions would be greatly improved. The good advice so forcibly given, can hardly fail to have a good effect in fostering better sentiments among the negroes and better feelings among all. When Carroll comes to Chester again he will have a good audience.

Misses Porah and Ella Wachtel returned Tuesday evening from a visit of several weeks in Chicago. Their sister, Mrs. I. G. Poppers, came home with them.

Rev. A. T. Lindsay Resigns.

Some surprise was occasioned in the congregation of the Plagah Associate Reformed Presbyterian church Sunday morning at the regular preaching service when the pastor, Rev. A. T. Lindsay, tendered his resignation. He is greatly beloved by his people, whom he has served most acceptably and conscientiously for the past five years. There has at no time been any friction whatever and Mr. Lindsay's resignation was tendered doubtless because of the fact that the work of the pastorate was too much for him in connection with his duties as president of Linwood College.

It is certain that the congregation will bring to bear every reasonable influence to induce Mr. Lindsay to withdraw his resignation. A member of the congregation informed The Gazette reporter yesterday that, when the congregation meets to take action in the matter, it will likely decline to consent to a dissolution of the pastoral relations existing between Mr. Lindsay and the Plagah church. A preacher of ability and a young minister of energy and accomplishments, Mr. Lindsay has won the love and esteem of his members, all of whom would doubtless regret to lose him as pastor.—Gastonia Gazette.

Bad Phone Service.

The construction of the lines of the Southern Power Company through northern York has practically ruined the telephone service over all the lines coming in close proximity to the power lines. The only remedy to the situation is to change the telephone lines from ground to metallic circuit, and about this the telephone people are hesitating for the reason that they claim the rentals received from the lines as now operated do not warrant the expense of the change.—Yorkville Enquirer.

Supreme Court Decisions.

The supreme court has affirmed the judgment of the court below in the case of Sutton vs the Catawba Power company. The verdict of the court below was for the plaintiff in the sum of $1,500. Messrs. Wilson & Wilson for defendant; G. W. S. Hart for plaintiff. The lower court has been reversed in the case of Key vs the Western Union Telegraph Company. W. B. Wilson, Jr., for plaintiff; J. H. Marion for defendant. The judgment of the court below was for the plaintiff in the sum of $500.—Yorkville Enquirer.

Hoke Smith is right. Government ownership of the railroads is the only means by which rate discrimination can be prevented. This principle is going to make some man president of the United States.—Spartanburg Journal.

Items From News and Herald.

Mrs. N. I. Madden left Monday for Shreveport, La., to visit her son, Mr. Willie Crawford.

Mr. R. C. Johnson, of Camden, was over the past week closing deals he had made for lands on the Wateree for the Southern Power Company. Good prices were paid for these lands and their purchase insures still larger developments than were at first contemplated.

Rev. C. E. McDonald left yesterday for Pineville in response to a phone message telling him of the critical illness of his father-in-law, Mr. R. H. Harris, who was not expected to live.

Mr. C. E. Strange was called to Sumter last week on a sad mission, the death of his son-in-law, Mr. John R. Haynesworth, who leaves a wife and several children. Mr. Strange returned Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Priscilla Ketchen has returned from an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. McElwee Ross, who returned with her.

George, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cathcart, died yesterday after a brief attack of meningitis. The interment was yesterday afternoon in the A. B. P. cemetery. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends in their loss of their only child.

Mrs. Mary McMaster and Mrs. W. R. Elliott were called to Union last week in response to a telegram informing them of their father, Col. S. M. Bice, being paralyzed. His condition is still such that but little hope is entertained for his recovery. He is now 77 years old and has been a life in which has flowed in a very large measure the milk of human kindness.

The hearts of many were saddened on the 24th of January, 1907, by the death of Mrs. Mary A. Pope, the mother of Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Huey, Miss Mattie, and Messrs. Martin, John and Jason Pope, of Stevenson. For several years she was a sufferer from throat trouble, and was taken away with an attack of pneumonia. The change was a welcome one to her, for she was a true member of Beaver Creek church and was ready for the bright home above. She was about 74 years old.

Good Men in the Liquor Business.

The question is being raised a fresh as to the attitude of good men toward the liquor business since the passage of the Carey-Cochran law. To our mind there is not one particle of change in this respect. No good man can afford to be connected with the sale of liquor. His attitude must be against it, whether it be sold by individual, state, or county.

The facts are, good men are not going to connect themselves with the liquor business; for they know that it is wicked, and that it has never failed to corrupt those who engage in it. The very curse and blight of heaven is on the accused thing, and no man dares to touch it with the hope of escaping the consequences.—Greenwood Journal.

New Line to Gaffney.

Superintendent Babington, of the Piedmont Telephone company, was in Yorkville this morning and left with Mr. Craig McCorkle, of the local system, to prospect a new line from Yorkville to Gaffney. Mr. Babington said that the proposed new line is to be first-class in every particular, and is to have a complete metallic circuit that will protect it from any and all interference from the electric power wires.—Yorkville Enquirer.

Jones Gone with $68,000.

Charlotte, N. C., March 20.—Franc H. Jones, assistant cashier of the Charlotte National bank of this city, is missing with $68,000 of the bank's funds. News of the defalcation was given out today. Jones left the city Saturday night, stating to a bank official that he had an urgent call to Richmond. The shortage will not seriously inconvenience the bank, as it has assets of over $1,000,000 and the co-operation of all the city banks.

Jones was a member of the First Presbyterian church and to an extent active in church affairs. He leaves a wife and several children here. The bank has offered a reward of $1,000 for his arrest.

Special to The State.

Charlotte, N. C., March 20.—Franc H. Jones came to Charlotte from Louisville, N. C., five years ago to accept the place of paying teller at the Charlotte National bank. Six weeks ago he was made assistant cashier. He enjoyed the confidence of the bank's officers and of the community and his moral character was above suspicion. It is known that some of the money he took was lost in speculation and his operations have extended over a period of four weeks, during the illness of the cashier. He is 40 years old, quiet and of excellent habits.

Some years ago he married Miss Rosa B. Smith, of Wilmington, and he has three children. Mrs. Jones has been seriously ill in a local hospital here for some time and was only removed to her home this morning and told of her husband's crime. She is in a critical condition and friends do not believe she can survive the shock and shame.

Jones was secretary of the Colonial club and an officer in the First Presbyterian Sunday school. He came here with a good record and has assiduously maintained it, standing high in social and religious circles and was a general favorite with his business associates.

The announcement of his defalcation this morning created a profound sensation.

The police of many cities have been furnished with a description of him and every effort will be made to capture him. The only trace of him is the fact that he boarded a Seaboard Air Line train at 7 o'clock Saturday night and paid cash fare. He changed cars at Monroe, N. C., 50 miles from Charlotte, but whether he went north or south is not known.

Work at Ninety-Nine Islands.

Having completed its work at Great Catawba Falls, the Southern Power company is now moving its entire working force and construction plant from Catawba Falls to Ninety-Nine Islands. The site of the proposed Broad River dam is about four miles below the site of the Cherokee Falls Manufacturing company. The construction folks are rapidly building quite a little town at the site of the dam, and the probability is that the settlement will soon number between four and five hundred souls. Having gotten dam building down to a very fine point, it is not thought that the Southern Power company will be a great while in finishing the present work.—Yorkville Enquirer.

The women suffragists have been storming the English parliament again. About 70 of them were arrested by the police but released on bail.
